This will give a crushing force, which must soon sweep the rebel armies from the field.

It's better for you, and for the service that you enlist in the old regiments. It secures you from much of the dangers of camp and field, and greatly increases your efficiency as a soldier. These regiments are now his toric. They are ennobled by deeds of brave suffering and lofty heroism. Their banners bear inscriptions of living memories. By volunteering you will become a sharer i in those living memories and historic glories It you would preserve the honorable nam of you county, volunteer. When we referred to the recent meeting of War Democrats at Chicago, in our last issue, we were guided alone by the platform which was adopted, and regretted that they were not explicit upon one of the leading issues that will divide parties and distract the country. Since our article was written we have seen a report of their pro ceedings, which, in some measure, justifies our hope and belief that the meeting was conservative, and not of a radical tendency as we, in common with others, feared. From that report we take the following, showing that the meeting acted upon and rejected propositions which would have placed these War Democrats upon the same platform as the one occupied by the Radical Republi-
